SECTION OFFICER

Please see the lr, dt.17-2-2009 and 19-3-2009 of DG, ACB at pages 55 and 87 c.f.

The file deals with the trap case of Kum KSS Krishnaveni, Village Revenue Officer, O/o MRO, Kasimkota mandal, Visakhapatnam district, who was acquitted by the Spl.Judge for ACB cases, Visakhapatnam and dropping of further action against her.

The brief facts of the case are that Kum KSS Krishnaveni, Village Revenue Officer, O/o MRO, Kasimkota mandal, Visakhapatnam district was trapped by ACB officials on 12-11-2002 when she accepted Rs.4000/- from the complainant. Prior to the acceptance of bribe by VAO, the complainant approached two other officers i.e. MRI and Surveyor and requested for official favour, they asked the complainant to pay the bribe amount to the VAO. Thus, she was caught red-handed by the ACB. All the three officers were kept under suspension by the Collector, Visakhapatnam Dist. The MRI and the Surveyor were reinstated into service after the completion of 2 years of suspension period. The VAO alone was continued under suspension. Charge Sheet has been filed against the three officers in a court of Law.

As the matter stood thus, Kum KSS Krishnaveni, VAO(u/s) filed an OA No.4375/07 before the APAT praying for reinstatement into service. The Hon'ble Tribunal in order, 1-8-07 directed the respondents to review the case in terms of G.O.Ms.No.86, dt.8-3-94 and to re-induct her into service.

In the meanwhile, the DG, ACB in his Lr., dt.17-12-07 has informed that the Spl.Judge for ACB Cases, Visakhapatnam in order, dt.12-12-2007 acquitted the three A.Os in CC No.23/2002 and further informed that the copy of judgment alongwith grounds if any for filing appeal in the High Court will be sent in due course.

The matter alongwith representation of KSS Krishnaveni, VAO(u/s) has been examined by the Govt. and decided to reinstate her into service and drop further action against her keeping in view of the acquittal of the case in ACB Court. Accordingly, orders were issued for reinstatement of KSS Krishnaveni, VRO into service vide Memo, dt.8-4-2008.

With regard to dropping of further action, kind attention is invited to the orders Prl.Secy at X on para 49 at page 18 ante.

Now, the DG, ACB in Lr., dt.17-2-2009 has furnished the acquittal judgment, dt.12-12-2007 of Srpl.Judge for ACB cases in CC No.23/2002 and further stated that the Bureau is of the opinion that there are no grounds to prefer an appeal against the acquittal orders of the Trial court and requested to take further action in the matter.

Further, the DG, ACB in his Lr., dt.19-3-2009 has intimated that the case has been finalized on the ground that the P.W.1 i.e the complainant thrust the money into the hands of A.O.3. i.e. Kum Krishnaveni, VRO. The standing counsel of the Bureau opined that there are no grounds to prefer an appeal against the acquittal orders of the trial court. And further appeal has been filed against the P.W.2 i.e. Sri O.Sanyasu Rao, son of the complainant(P.W.1) for perjury charges being not taken cognizance by the judge on the count of the 164 Cr.P.C. not being signed by the P.W.2.

Please see the remarks of Vig.IV Department at page 21 ante, wherein they furnished the Ir., dt.22-8-2009 of APVC which may kindly be perused at page 91 c.f.

The issue in this file relates to dropping of further action against Kum KSS Krishnaveni, Village Revenue Officer as she was acquitted by ACB court, Visakhapatnam in a trap case.

The facts of the case are that Kum KSS Krishnaveni, VAO, Atcherla (V) of Kasimkota (M) was trapped by ACB on 12-11-2001 along with two others viz. Sri K.Nageswara Rao, R.O (A.O1.) and Sri D.Tulsiram, Mandal

Surveyor(A.O.2). The three A.O's were placed under suspension. After the completion of two years of suspension period, the A.O.1 and A.O.2 were reinstated and the A.O.3. i.e Kum KSS Krishnaveni was continued under suspension. She was prosecuted in a court of Law. As the matter stood thus, she approached the APAT in OA No.4375/2007 praying for reinstatement into service, the Hon'ble Tribunal on 1-8-07 has passed directions to the respondents to review the case in terms of G.O.Ms.No.86, dt.8-3-94 and re-induct her into service.

In the meanwhile, the DG, ACB in his Ir., dt.17-12-07 has informed that the Spl.Judge for ACB Cases, Visakhapatnam in order, dt.12-12-2007 acquitted the three A.Os in CC No.23/2002 and the copy of judgment alongwith grounds if any for filing appeal in the High Court will be sent in due course.

The matter has been examined by the Government, and the orders were passed in circulation to reinstate her into service and drop further action against her keeping in view of the acquittal of the case in ACB Court. Accordingly orders were issued for reinstatement of Kum KSS Krishnaveni into service vide Memo., dt.8-4-2008 and with regard to issue of dropping of further action, the department has taken a decision to examine the issue after the receipt of Judgement and the remarks of DG, ACB.

The DG, ACB in his Ir., dt.17-2-2009 has furnished the copy of judgment, dt. 12-12-2007 in CC No.23/2002 and also informed that Bureau is of the opinion that there are no grounds to prefer an appeal against the acquittal order.

With the above position, the file was sent to APVC for their remarks in the matter. Now, the APVC in its letter, dt.22-8-2009 has informed that the commission agrees with the Department's proposal i.e. to drop further action against 1) Sri K.Nageswara Rao, R.I(A.O.1) 2) Sri D.Tulsiram, Surveyor(A.O.2) and 3) Kum KSS Krishnaveni, VRO as they were acquitted from the charges and in the light of the opinion given by the DG, ACB.

In view of the above, file submitted for orders whether further action against Kum KSS Krishnaveni, VRO may be dropped with reference to the advice of APVC.

After orders are passed, the file may circulate to M(Rev) for approval.
